

Lush flowerbeds overflowing with colorful blooms make you want to snip a few stems and take them inside. The beauty of a cut flower garden not only enriches your outdoor gardening experience but allows you to bring that same beauty indoors. There is a certain sense of pride in knowing that the colorful flowers sitting on your table were grown in your own personal garden.

Hemerocallis

Physostegia

Crocosmia

Centaurea

Iris

Achillea

Digitalis

Aster

Gaillardia

Phlox paniculata

Prepared for your gardening pleasure by www.growingforyou.com

CUT FLOWERS

Perennials for cut flower gardens

Achillea, Aconitum, Agastache, Aquilegia
Armeria, Aster, Astilbe
Baptisia, Boltonia, Buddleia
Canna, Caryopteris, Centaurea, Centranthus, Chelone,
Chrysanthemum, Cimicifuga, Convallaria, Coreopsis, Crocosmia
Dendranthema, Dianthus, Digitalis
Echinacea, Eupatorium, Gaillardia, Gaura
Helianthus, Heliopsis, Helleborus,
Hemerocallis, Heuchera, Heucherella
Hosta, Hydrangea, Iris, Kniphofia
Lavandula, Leucanthemum, Liatris, Lilium, Lobelia, Monarda
Paeonia, Penstemon, Perovskia, Phlox paniculata, Physostegia,
Rudbeckia, Salvia, Santolina, Scabiosa
Sedum varieties, Solidago, Stokesia
Tiarella, Verbena, Veronica

Small to Medium Cut Flower Garden

1 ea - Iris
3 ea – Phlox paniculata
3 ea – Physostegia
5 ea – Aster divaricatus
3 ea – Centaurea (Bachelor Button)

“Hot Color” Cut Flower Garden

3 ea - Daylily (Strawberry Candy)
5 ea – Achillea ‘Paprika’
3 ea – Crocosmia
2 ea – Gaillardia (Blanket Flower)

Medium to Large Cut Flower Garden

3 ea – Hemerocallis (Daylily)
1 ea – Crocosmia
3 ea – Centaurea (Bachelor Button)
5 ea – Iris
3 ea – Achillea (Yarrow)
5 ea – Digitalis (Foxglove)
5 ea – Aster divaricatus
3 ea – Gaillardia (Blanket Flower)
3 ea – Phlox paniculata