

HEUCHERA is grown for its luscious foliage as well as coral bell flowers. Heucheras are noted for their tolerance of dry shade conditions, but will thrive in moist well-drained soil as well. Cream to pink flowers on tall stems, rise above the tidy foliage in June and July. Foliage colors range from green to purple with every imaginable shading of silver and burgundy on clean, care-free leaves.

HEUCHERA

Obsidian

Pewter Moon

Plum Pudding

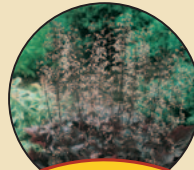

Bressingham Hybrids

Snow Angel

Montrose Ruby

Palace Purple

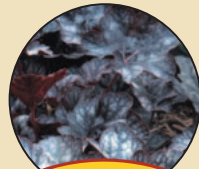

Stormy Seas

Black Beauty

Autumn Bride

Silver Scrolls

www.growingforyou.com